

JD for Patient Care/ Nursing Attendant staff.

Vitals checking -

- Checking Pulse
- Blood Pressure
- Respiration Rate
- Temperature

Patient Care/ Nursing Attendant are experts in Supportive care which includes below -

- Bathing the patient
- Grooming the patient
- Taking patient for a walk
- Giving medicine on time as prescribed by a doctor
- Attending to patient's toilet needs
- Assisting in (Ryle's) tube feeding and Normal feeding
- Assisting in walking, change of position and changing the diaper
- Transferring patients from bed to wheelchair
- We provide Mobilization with Nebulizer (if required)
- We provide Oral medicine with patient request (If required, Our attendants can help with changing catheter bag and cleaning the Catheter, Diaper change...

Shift – 12 Hours Day, 12 Hours Night and Stay Duty (Staff with stay at patient's Home for duty).

- All the female/Male candidates should be age above 19 Years
- All the candidates must have ID of Aadhar Card and Pan Card
- All the candidates should have the same name, father's name and date of birth in all the documents.
- All should carry original documents-Id Proof/Address proof/Mark sheets/ Photos

Required Attention:

- All should be able to read and write Hindi, English and knowledge of the local language as well.
- They have to travel across city for patient duty.
- All the male candidates should weight above 50 Kg and female above 45 kg.
- All the candidates should have the minimum height 5 feet (153 cm)